

1986 Hiwassee

OUR TIME IS NOW

We came together from all over the world to share a few moments of our lives together. Suddenly it was possible to start over again — the past was behind us and we were able to start making new friends and building new relationships. The ups and downs of life at Hiwassee were to prepare us for the ups and downs of life. Somewhere, out in the future our paths might part, but for the present we were able to share our studies, our play, our work, our dreams, and our prayers. You see, our years at Hiwassee were teaching us that . . .

. . . OUR TIME IS NOW!

"We have thoughts of the future, but we will never forget our past experiences at Hiwassee College. We had times of tears, times of fun, and there were even times when all we wanted to do was talk. Our experiences of today will be our memories tomorrow of the times we shared at Hiwassee College."

Homecoming '85 — Let's Celebrate

Homecoming is a special time filled with special people.

To be nominated for Homecoming Queen is a great honor. The nominees for 85-86 Homecoming were Mary Roderick, escorted by Duane Fields; Dee Dee Lockhart, escorted by Greg Lockhart; and Kim Miller escorted by Trent Lenear. Kim Miller was chosen by her classmates to hold this title. The freshman princesses were Laura Reubush, escorted by Joe Lee, and Scarlet Grimes, escorted by Kevin Gentry.

Homecoming wouldn't be a success without the Hiwassee Tiger Fans led by our mascot Ronnie Moser. They bring out the best of the school with their grrreat personality.

... fashions that made the grade

Changing Times

Fashion at Hiwassee College is a very important issue. There are a variety of styles being worn around the college. Many of the styles being worn today were also worn in the past. One of the most popular fashions being worn around the campus are stretch pants known as "steerups." These very same pants were worn by some of the parents of students but were known then as "ski pants". There are also new fashions on the scene. One of these is the faded two-toned jeans. These are also a hot number on the campus. These and many more fashions were worn in the past and are now returning.

Books, Books, and More Books

1. Mrs. Blakenship's class turns the world of economics upside down. 2. Tests are a reality in Mrs. Chambers accounting class. 3. It's just another manic Monday! 4. English is a foreign language to the Japanese, but that does not stop them. 5. Computers are very important in the world today as Dwayne Watkins is finding out. 6. These girls are learning the finer points of typing. 7. Phyllis does a little studying while her friend really hits the books.

Library

The Hardwick-Johnson Library is a place where students may go to study, research, watch movies, attend labs, register for classes, or just to talk to friends and pass some free time. Many people go to the library to study for tests or do homework. Hours of time are spent there by freshmen doing research for their spring term papers. Some people go there just to talk with friends about life and its problems. If you need help in finding material just ask one of the librarians or work study assistants. The library is not only a place of academic learning but also a place to learn about life.

Good Food, Friends and Fun

1. Playing pool is one of the many attractions at the Student Center, as these guys will tell you. 2. Mrs. Henery and Sonda Strickland keep the Student Center in ship shape condition. 3. The new television is a big hit.

4. The Student Center is a great place to go and just have a good time. 5. wonder what they are looking at? 6. Some people just like to hang around.

Work Study

The College Work Study Program is one way for many students to cover the costs of attending Hiwassee College. There are many students with a wide variety of jobs in the work study program. They work around 10 hours a week doing such things as helping teachers grade tests, cleaning up buildings, cleaning the stables, working in the cafeteria, lifeguarding at the pool, helping the head residents in the dorms, and working outdoors. Many students have a work study job that will help them with their plans in the future. Anyone is eligible for a job regardless of their financial situation. The $3.35 per hour each person earns is applied directly to the student's account. A work study is like a grade, you get out of it what you put into it. For a lot of people a work study is a way of working to help pay for college while doing something that will be beneficial later in life.

1. Renee Lovin is an office worker. 2. Brian Harrill works in the student center. 3. Pat Bruce and Tammy Carson have a work study in the Development Office. 4. Scarlet Grimes works the "information" booth in the BLC. 5. Anthony Cullop runs the print shop. 6. These work study students work in the strawberry farm. 7. Many people have work studies as tutors in the new Developmental Studies Lab.

Cars of Today

"Cars today may range anywhere from five thousand to twenty-five thousand dollars, for a newer model car, and for two-hundred to two-thousand dollars, you can purchase a used car."

If you own a car, and plan on keeping it for awhile, regardless of model and size, you'd better take care of it. This includes both outside as well as inside. Keeping your car in good running condition as well as keeping it clean and looking good is important. License plates play a big part in the looks of a car. They've changed remarkably. You may now have your name, initials, or whatever you desire placed on your license plate.

Caught in the Camera's Eye

1. Misty Gambill, Archie Leonard, Polly Payne and Karen Harris are enjoying the outdoors. 2. Tim Berry, John Carroll, Paul Wohlford and Joe Clevenger are talking about the girls at the pool. 3. They could be studying, but my guess is that they are playing spin the bottle. 4. Lashea Lowe takes a walk in the pouring down sunshine. 5. Chuck and a friend are getting ready to try out new stunts. 6. Louisa Perry and a friend take a break from classes. 7. Tony and Rachel enjoy a walk in the sunshine.

The Bell Tower and Fountain

The Bell Tower and the fountain hold very important memories for many of Hiwassee College students. The Bell Tower was built in 1984, in honor of B. D. Benton for his service to the college, church, and community. The Bell itself was built in 1889 to signal drills, curfew times, and class changes on campus. The tower has since become a place to study, relax, or just a place to have fun. It will always be a very important part of the Hiwassee College Campus.

The Hiwassee College Fountain is also a popular attraction for the Hiwassee students. The fountain was built in the 1960s. Today most students go there just to relax or clown around.

The Hiwassee Bunch

Rymer Cafeteria

Rymer Cafeteria underwent a $40,000 renovation over the summer. New carpet was installed, new wallpaper was hung, walls were painted, and equipment was replaced. The Rymer Room also had major improvements. The cafeteria is a gathering place for both students and faculty to dine and share time together. Many visitors from the surrounding area enjoy meals at the cafeteria. Although the food is not always just like "Mom's cooking," the cafeteria has some famous dishes such as the chicken dinners on Sundays, burritos, and Hiwassee bread.

1. Waiting in line gives the chance to talk to friends until 2. It is time to get your tray. 3. You get to choose the food you want and must show your 4. ID card. 5. You can also get a salad before 6. enjoying your meal. 7. Ice cream is a great dessert to have before 8. returning your tray.

Going to the Movies

You Deserve A Break

After a long day at school, everyone deserves a break. No, I am not talking about McDonalds. The idea is to catch a good movie. If you're a student at Hiwassee College, you can catch a good movie every once in a while at the Barker Learning Center on campus. Since the movies only cost $1.50, you're really getting a deal.

If you want to get away from the campus life, you can easily (if you have a car) catch a movie at the Foothills Cinemas in Maryville. These movies will cost you about $4.00 but many of them are worth it.

The year of 1985 has produced a lot of good movies and also great actresses and actors have appeared in these movies.

Listed below, according to the students of Hiwassee, are the top five movies of the year and the best actresses and actors.

Phenomena of the 80's

"John, I hate to tell you this but you're not the father of our children, your brother is." This is one of the famous lines from one of the most watched soap operas at Hiwassee. Soap operas at Hiwassee are a great pastime. Almost every afternoon one can go in the lobbies of the dorms and many of the rooms and see countless students watching soap operas. After all, classes are over and if you miss just one episode you may miss an important tidbit of information leading to one of the characters past. Soap operas are something you can watch with your friends and have fun. You can try to guess what will happen next or who is going to have somebody else's baby or anything else. If you miss something you can ask your friends what happened.

Hiwassee students also watch soap operas at night. Some of these include Dallas, Knots Landing, Dynasty, and The Colbys. Although a wide variety of both daytime and nighttime soaps are watched there are some Hiwassee favorites. The Yearbook staff conducted a survey to find out these favorites and the results are:

Daytime top four

1. Days of Our Lives
2. Another World
3. Search for Tomorrow
4. As the World Turns

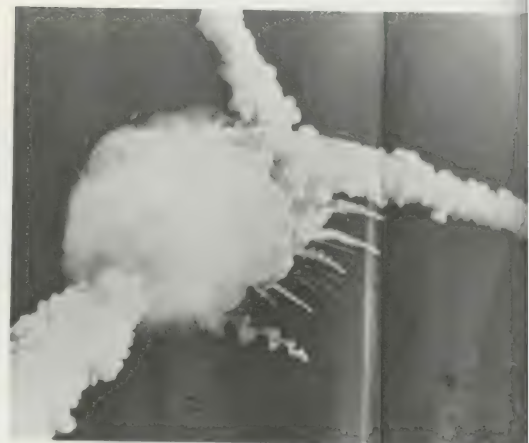

Nighttime top three

1. Dallas
2. Dynasty
3. Knots Landing

1. Melissa Fox reads during the commercials. 2. Lynn Baxter watches a soap in the lobby. 3. Allison Crumbley, Mary Presley, Maggie Weaks, and Jennie Lorren are all caught up in the action. 4. Melissa Fox, Jennie Lorren, Martha Tulloch, and Melissa Davidson catch up on the latest happenings.

Life: before, during, and after Hiwassee

1. Students at a meeting with their advisor.

2. William Bell with a prospective student.

Making the decision to go to Hiwassee is not always an easy one. You must decide between other colleges, a job, or something else before coming to Hiwassee. Once you are at Hiwassee a major field of study can be hard to decide on. Your advisor can help make this a little easier on you. They are there for you to ask questions about which classes to take, what college is best for you or what kind of career you want. After you leave Hiwassee, life is not always easy. You must decide on what college you will continue your education at or if you will get a job or even get married and not continue with school. Hiwassee is a great school that can help you make sound decisions about your life.

3. A career may be next after Hiwassee.

4. Finding another college is tough.

5. Jeannine with a future student.

7. A job may be choice for after Hiwassee.

Dormitory Life

Can you imagine what a civilized person would think if she walked into a college dormitory? One would think that he or she was entering the Twilight Zone. These dormitories were designed to provide students with a place to stay while they were not in class but they have also become a place to have fun. In these dorms students live in groups of two or more, and some even share a common bathroom.

On each floor of the dorms one or maybe two persons, called Resident Advisors or "RAs," are responsible for keeping the halls and bathrooms clean and making sure the noise is kept to a minimum during "quiet hours."

Dormitory life also has a lot of heavy worries. For example, "I knew I should have brought that stereo"; "I won't be able to go home until next weekend"; "why did I buy that blouse? My roommate has one just like it"; "I'm out of hair spray and I have a date tonight"; "My roommate's the pits."

This brings us to another potential problem — your roommate. Were you assigned someone who completely disagrees with everything you are in favor of? Or maybe you want peace and quiet while your roommate needs to crank up the stereo and listen to Bruce Springsteen while studying for a biology exam? Maybe you like to go to bed early and sleep late while dear old roomie goes to bed late, snores through the night (when you have a test in Mr. Rasnake's math class at 8:00) and when you do finally get to sleep, roomie's alarm clock makes a horrible noise and sends you running out of your room thinking there's a fire.

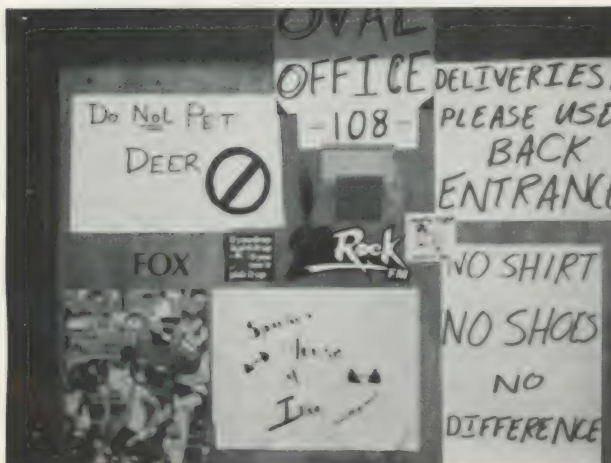

Dorm life isn't all bad. After you get over your plain rectangular room with two beds, four drawers and a desk, you start to tastefully decorate your room, arrange signs and posters, and cram everything somewhere. It is now time to find out where everything is. First of all, we find the bathroom for those times when Mother Nature makes a call collect. Next the snack and drink machines should be around somewhere. Find them! These are a must for when you have those midnight munchies. And the most important is the telephone. One would go mad if she couldn't talk to her boyfriend ten minutes after they just saw each other. Or can you imagine cancelling a month planned date face to face.

We've got the Colgate pump.

Hey, What's so funny. (Lisa Robbins and Donna Workman)

WOW!! Look at the artwork!

What a mess. (just look at it)

Trent Lenear, hard at work.

All of these things are common in dorms, but we learn to get along with each other. We realize that mistakes will happen, and little ones are tolerable, but when some mad maniac sets off the fire alarm at 3:30 in the morning sending everyone into a mad dash to get outside and causing the whole floor to get campused, a few people might get a little upset.

We experience a lot of things in dorms but soon we just learn to sit back, prop up your feet, (Don't let Mom T see you), and just relax and feel at home. After all, dorm life is something special.

Can't a person study around here? (Kendra McKee)

I think I can. I think I can. (Leanna Ross)

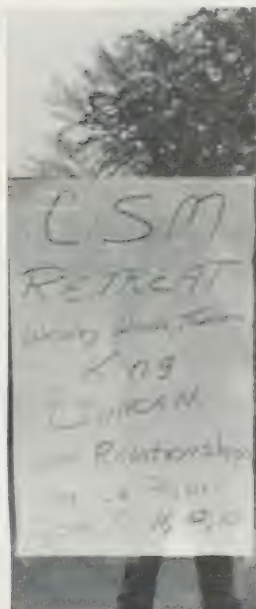

Come on! Hurry up! Get on with it! It's your turn.

Christmas Card

1. Hiwassee is visited by Santa and his reindeer. 2. Hiwassee gets a "real live" Christmas card. 3. Misty Gambill lays a big kiss on the turkey (Jeff Litton). 4. Santa's on his way!

Chapel

Chapel is held every Wednesday and is one of the few times all of Hiwassee can be together. Chapel is a time to worship and get closer with your friends through fellowship.

Chapel attendance is required in order to graduate. Each student receives an orange card when he or she enters the chapel. This card is turned in at the end of services. If you miss a service, your Public Programs grade will be affected. You may make up a missed chapel by listening to the service on tape on your own time.

Throughout the year Hiwassee tries to provide a variety of speakers and programs during the service.

Some are more memorable than others. Hiwassee does not try to force religion on people even though you must attend chapel. Instead, the college is trying to provide a Christian atmosphere in which the student may come closer to God if he or she so desires.

Passing time at the pool

Looking for the perfect food

One of the most important concerns of college students is meal time. If the food on campus doesn't agree with me, where do I eat? This is the one question so many of us find ourselves asking.

Finding a place to eat is simple, because of the many restaurants; but finding the food that you enjoy eating is not as simple. College students everywhere are facing this problem. They do not eat in the cafeteria because of the fact they want a change. So where do they go? Try Hardees. Hardees is the place to go if you find hamburgers, fries, and a large drink satisfying. If not, then how would three mini-burgers, a slaw dog or a ham-n-cheese sandwich sound? If this slaps your taste buds, then Quick-Way is the place for you.

These are just a few of the places where the students at Hiwassee choose to eat. There is still a large portion of students left on campus without transportation to these places. Many students have in their dormitory rooms; refrigerators, micro-wave ovens, and all sorts of cooking utensils in which they fix themselves something to eat without leaving their rooms. And if that's not enough, the student center serves a variety of foods and drinks.

Although there are various food options, over 20% of students will find themselves skipping meals occasionally.

C.S.M. Council

Yearbook

The 1985-86 yearbook staff has worked very hard to present you with a memorable annual. The Editor, Jeff Litton, has worked night and day taking pictures, developing them, and writing copy. As you know, behind every good editor is a good staff and they are: Churchie Riley, Patricia Settles, Lisa Howard, Latonya Andrew and Misty Gambill. Putting together an annual is like baking a cake, if you put in all the right ingredients you will get something everybody likes.

Newspaper

Kim Dean has really been burning the midnight oil this year. She has put together three Hiwasseans. She is to be commended for all her hard work and dependability.

Agriculture Club

You could say the Agriculture Club has a green thumb. This year they have grown strawberries, tomato plants, peppers, watermelons, and cantalopes. They have also set out 300 fruit trees which will produce in two or three years. The Agriculture Club has spent many hours beautifying the campus. They have set out dogwoods around the Chapel, and walkaways. The President of the club is Don Smith and his Vice-President is David Graham. As you can tell this club isn't afraid of hard work and neither is their sponsor Mr. Witt as he hangs in there with the best of them.

French

The officers of the French club are: Natalie Gonzales and Mike Tate. They along with the rest of the club have a great interest in the culture of France. (oui, oui)

On the Road Again

Commuters

The officers of the Commuters club are: President Jenny Stamey, Vice President Kevin Gentry, Secretary Pat Bruce and Treasurer Denise Smullen. Their sponsor is Mr. Kirk who does a good job of keeping things rolling. The Commuters are always on the run whether it's coming to school, going home, or just trying to get back in time for the big game. Even though the commuters do not live on campus they still play a big part in activities that are going on. Most of the commuters eat lunch in the Student center, and spend a lot of time in the library. To the commuters the roads are their second home.

The President of Life Service is Joy Stapleton and the Vice President is Kristie Townsend together they make a good team.

Choir, Harmony

Shalom, Orpheus

Psychology

The Psychology club is an interest organization. Their goal is to better understand human behavior. They also strive to better themselves mentally, emotionally, physically and spiritually. They do this through group discussions, speakers and workshops. They do all this through their friend and sponsor Mrs. Miller who is the Psychology teacher here at Hiwassee. Who could be better qualified?

Home Economics

The Home Economics club, sponsored by Mrs. Beth Howard, had a very fun year. During the Fall quarter they served and made refreshments for the Get Acquainted Dance, The Homecoming, and P.T.K. installment. Winter quarter was also a very productive quarter for them. Not only did they make refreshments for the Valentine's dance, they also sold homemade heart shaped chocolate chip cookies with special messages on them. Spring quarter they had planned to send out care packages which the parents buy for their student so that they will have "brain food" during final exam week.

The President of the club is Lisa Smallen and the other officers are Rene Loving, and Scarlett Grimes. The club itself consists of

Student Government Association

The S.G.A. is headed up by Wayne Cochran. Being S.G.A. president as Wayne will tell you is a hard job. Wayne presides over meetings every other Friday. Wayne along with his Vice President Dave Denny and secretary Angela Albright keep the campus going with dances and other fun events. S.G.A. is made up of the president in each club, Freshman and Sophomore representatives, and the sophomore class officers.

Some of the things S.G.A. did this year are: they got a large screen T.V. donated to the Student Center along with a VCR, they sponsored the Homecoming Dance which is always a great success. This year the members stayed up to three o'clock to decorate for this special occasion. They also sponsored the Spring Formal which is one of the last big events of the year. The theme of the dance was "Tender Love." S.G.A. also raised part of the money for the new bus. This was done through a phoneathon held in the Bank of Knoxville.

Most people consider it a privilege to be part of the S.G.A. and act accordingly. The sponsor for S.G.A. is Dean Daughtery, who makes Wayne's job a little bit easier and the meetings go by a little faster.

Circle K

The Circle K club has been very active with many projects this year, some of them were: sponsoring Special Olympics, tutoring the local girls home, sponsoring trips to Laurel Lake and selling basketball championship T-shirts and autographed sophomore class shirts. The president of the club is David Huckaby, the Vice President and right hand man is Tony Ramsey, Melissa Gay a student from Saudia Arabia is their secretary, Becky Cox is treasurer, and Imogen Ferguson is in charge of public relations. Mr. Millwood, who is also the librarian, is the sponsor.

Drama

1. Roy Smith, President of Drama Club, in Character as Nicely-Nicely. 2. Mr. Lowry adds the finishing touches to Henry Amberson's make-up. 3. Dave Denny takes a cat nap before a Matinee performance. 4. Garry Butler gets it in the eye. 5. Backstage before Guys and Dolls. 6. A peek into the men's dressing room. Gary Lovingood, Doyle Byrd, and Dave Huckaby getting ready. 7. The cast of Guys and Dolls during a break at rehearsal. 8. Melissa Brickey helps get the programs prepared.

This year the Drama Department at Hiwassee had a very demanding schedule. The Fall Quarter saw the performance of The Devil's Disciple. Winter Quarter was highlighted by Shakespeare's Love's Labors Lost. The most spectacular production was the Spring Quarter musical Guys and Dolls. The Drama Club, which is made of people who perform in the plays, is a major part of the Drama Department. Throughout the year the club held meetings before CSM on each Wednesday to discuss what was going on in the plays and to plan other activities for the year. The highlight of the year for the club is the annual Drama Banquet where "Academy" awards are presented to winners in several categories.

F.C.A.

One of the big functions of the F.C.A. is their annual slave auction. The slave auction was a big success this year. Dean Daughtery was the auctioneer and he along with the slaves made lots of money for the club.

1. Bottom row, left to right: Candy Caldwell, Joe Clevenger and Robin Kinsey. Top row, left to right: Mary Roderick, Leanne Ruebush, Katie Hammond and Dee Dee Lockhart. 2. Laura and Leanne are sold as a double trouble package. 5. Gosh Stanley! 6. The President Mary Roderick and Leanne Ruebush Vice President. 7. Do I hear $5,000? 8. Sold!

PTK Membership Explodes

The 85-86 officers for P.T.K. are: Angela Albright President, Randy Young Vice President, Stephanie Patton Secretary, Jeff Howard Treasurer and Connie Neese Reporter. The P.T.K. club has grown immensely with over 75 members. The P.T.K. members get their hours by doing many different jobs. Some of these are donating to the blood drive, planning the beach dance, contributing their time to the phoneathon, and hanging signs for the next meeting. The members also must keep a 3.00 average for the year. P.T.K. is a worthwhile club with many hard working members.

O.I.S.

O.I.S. or Organization for International Students, was formed to provide common ground for foreign students here at Hiwassee. Ms. Dail is the club sponsor, and she tries to provide activities to remind them of home and help them improve English Language skills. The members are able to discuss difficulties that they face in adjusting to the American way of life. Some of these include learning the language, learning American culture, adjusting to American food, and being away from home. Most of these students do not get to go home all year long. These students hail from such places as Japan, South America, Guatemala, Vietnam, Saudia Arabia, West Germany, and Israel. The American students at Hiwassee should be proud of these students and their accomplishments while being away from their families.

Civinettes

The Civinette club officers are: Connie Neese, President; Polly Payne, Vice President; Teresa Carrico, Secretary; and Misty Gambill, Treasurer.

Some of the accomplishments of the club are: they raised around $800.00 for the Heart Association, they cleaned the Civinette Memorial and had a number of parties for the girls home in Madisonville. During the year the club doubled in size and was one of few remaining clubs running in the club of the year contest.

We Don't Horse Around

The 1985-86 Horsehandlers had a very busy and successful year. They went to many meets and brought back what seemed like truckloads of awards. This small group of riders spent a lot of time together this year preparing for meets against such schools as Murray State, ETSU, MTSU, UT, and Berea College. They became close friends as they trained and competed against these larger schools. Perhaps they did so well because they were so closely knit. Hiwassee does not have the biggest equestrian program but many people feel we have one of the best and this year's team certainly proved it.

Business Club

The Hiwassee College Business club has been involved in several activities this year. As always, the club makes regular trips to the local East Tennessee Health Care Center. They keep a regular donation of $150.00 at the Center in case one of the patients needs it. Another activity for the club was their annual roadblock for muscular dystrophy. This year they raised $993.50, which was more than last year. The club came up with several new ideas this year. They sold Halloween candy bags with certificates in them, and on Valentine's Day they showed their appreciation to the staff by giving the members a secret pal.

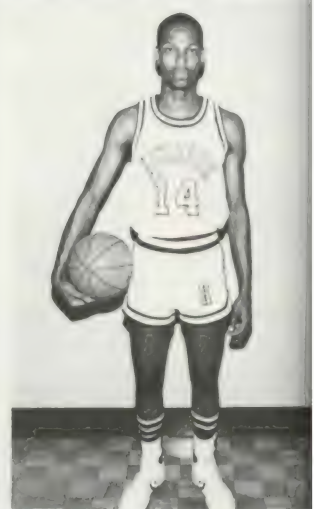

The club sponsor, Mrs. Blankenship, goes all out for the club and participates in all the activities with them. Mary Presley is the President and she does a very good job of organizing and getting the job done. Vice President is Mike Becker, Secretary is Allison Crumbley, and Imogene Ferguson is in charge of public relations.

Tiger Turf

The 1985-86 Hiwassee Tigers had one of their best seasons in recent years. They ended the regular season play with a 22-8 record. Then it was on to play for the state championship. They defeated Shelby State 92-85 to become the Tennessee State Champions. The team then went on to the regional tournament where they emerged as semi-finalists. During the year the Tigers gave many exciting performances on the court. The students at Hiwassee knew the men's team was going to have a great year when over half of the team's first ten games ended with more than 100 points for the victors, Hiwassee.

Tigerette Turf

The 1985-86 Women's Basketball team had a very special season this year. The year marked the last for head coach, Jack Teeter. The women played their hearts out to have a successful season. The Tigerettes ended the year in the semi-finals of the regionals. They posted a 12-10 record for the season. One other reason the year was so special was the naming of Angie Thompson as a first team member of Kodak All American Juco basketball team. For two years she averaged almost 23 points a game. Coach Teeter's team can certainly be proud of a fine season marked by special events.

If rankings depended on effort the Hiwassee baseball team would be number one. Many hours were devoted wholeheartedly by the players in practice. They actually began some practice during the summer before school started. After Fall Quarter began the players prepared for a short and successful fall schedule before cold weather set in. But not even the bitter cold could stop practice. The team simply moved into the weight room and gym where they worked on developing strength and stamina. In the early spring, practice moved to the field which had to be fixed up after a hard winter. Many Saturdays were spent working on the field. Finally it was time for the season. Many times the players had to get up extra early to get to games in other states. The Hiwassee baseball team ended the year with a 21-17 season. Hiwassee is very proud of the hard work and devotion shown by the players.

How, in such a limited space, can one talk of the tremendously successful season the Hiwassee Lady Tigers had this year? As everyone knows by now the softball team finished the year as the number two team in the entire nation. They boasted a 52-6 record for the season. Just the number of games played is impressive enough. During the year the team competed in five tournaments, never finishing lower than second including the nationals. They broke many long-standing records during the year. This was also the first time the softball team had been in the finals of National Tournament. Softball at Hiwassee is truly a tradition and this year the team proved that they really are a powerhouse in the country. Pretty remarkable for a junior college with about 500 students competing with four year schools with thousands of students. Hiwassee is proud to salute the highest placing sports team in the history of the school. Congratulations!

The Lady Tigers are ranked number 2 in the nation!

Faculty Fun

The faculty at Hiwassee College is a very special group of people. Not only are they devoted to their jobs, but they are also devoted to their students. They take the time to get to know as much as possible about students while they are attending Hiwassee. They know the students get involved in many other activities outside of class and are very understanding about your problems. In fact if you have a problem do not hesitate to talk to a teacher. They not only teach you academics but they also try to teach you about life, which makes the faculty unique indeed. No matter how much work they do, they know when it is time to have a little fun.

1. Ms. B gets ready to show Dave some karate. 2. See, teachers really do eat the food. 3. Mr. Rasnake ponders over an apple. 4. The Millers enjoy teaching at the same school. 5. Mr. Truett and Mr. Lowry are having an attitude adjustment. 6. Mrs. Arwood tempts Mr. Lowry with the golden apple. 7. Mr. Kirk has just got to have his Diet Coke. 8. Larry Dial loves to go to the pool.

Relationships

HOMECOMING . . . one of the most memorable events in the life of a sophomore is the week of Homecoming with its spirit activities. Most of us will never forget western day, grub day, dress-up day, sweats day, and maroon and gold day. The spirit was carried on as we won the Homecoming game. But before the game the Homecoming dance took place with its massive effort to decorate the gym. Many people spent over 15 hours helping out. The highlight of the week was the crowning of the Homecoming Queen. Kim Miller was chosen this year by her peers. Why? Because we like you.

ROOMMATES . . . Most of us stay on campus during our two years at Hiwassee. That means we have a roommate or two (or three). We may fight sometimes but by the time we leave here, our roommate is someone with whom we have shared our deepest secrets, our problems, our desires and our dreams. The special times roommates share now will be the cornerstone of the memories we have of Hiwassee, why do they put up with all the hard times? Because they like each other.

Having a brother or sister at Hiwassee during the same time you are attending can be fun or a hassle. Most people go to college because they're away from home. Why would your sister want to live with you at Hiwassee? Because she loves you.

Y?

... because we like you!!!

That's what happens next !!! Why, Jeff? Because they like you! The Sophomore class officers are Jeff Litton, president; Stephanie Patton, treasurer, Melissa Davidson, secretary; and Mary Roderick, vice president.

Jack Davis has shown us that you are only handicapped if you want to be. It is special people like him that make Hiwassee special. Why? Because we like you.

If Buildings Could Talk

If the buildings could talk, oh what stories they could tell. Since 1849, people have been coming in and out of the different buildings on campus. The buildings have seen different styles, and such, but one thing that hasn't changed is the spirit. The Hiwassee spirit can't be explained on paper, it's something that can only be experienced. In time even the buildings will change but the Hiwassee spirit will live on.

God shows his love to be true by the presence of the rainbow.

The Barker Learning Center is home away from home for most students.

ABOVE: Words like metallic bonding, ionic charge, differential equations, and pi often bring back memories of the Lundy Science Hall.

Hiwassee is not only known for it's rolling hills, but for the beautiful sky which speaks for itself.

ABOVE: When the leaves start falling off the trees, and the campus becomes deserted, you know it's winter time at Hiwassee.

For some the special thing about the Hiwassee campus is not the buildings, but the possibility of escaping buildings.

BELOW: The cross on the chapel represents love, friendship, and peace to the students at Hiwassee.

Whether on the road, on the sidewalk or stopping for a Hiwassee folks are looking better and better as time goes

There's time for everything

1. Melody Ramsey says, "It's almost as good as mom's." 2. Tammy Hobbs, Dee Dee Lockhart, and Lisa Isabell and Sherry Dunn are taking a break from classes. 3. Lorie Quinn, Gimmy Garren and Eddie Bradford show off their study habits. 4. Jamie Poe wants just 5 more minutes. 5. Robert Bowers takes being unique to the limit. 6. Tomoko Akazawa enjoys the beautiful Hiwassee campus. 7. Bo Phillips, and Melissa Smalling are working hard for their A's. 8. Karen Hess is showing off her pearly whites.

And this is love.

Coming together each week for CSM was the most special of times. Together we shared our tears and our hugs, our smiles and our love. Through the years, as we think back on these times, we will want to return to this special place and once again be able to sing the songs and share the happiness of this fellowship. Although we will not be able to travel back in time, we will remember and draw strength from the years we had here.
